

FAQS

Q. Is the course aimed at individuals in specific industries?

A. No, it's open to individuals across all backgrounds and sectors. Tailored to deliver across industries, according to Management Good Practice.

Q. What length of experience is needed to attend the course?

A. We have had Senior Managers and Business Owners and their teams - anyone who wants to develop their Leadership potential.

Q. What are the potential benefits of becoming a student member?

A. Access to the Management Direct Portal, articles and emergent thinking on Leadership and Management, as well as the Research service on the site (eg: ISO)

Q. What does the process entail if I want to upgrade to full member status?

A. Application form to complete once you have been through the programme and based on years of experience, may qualify for Fellow Status.

Q. Will I have to complete refresher courses after completion of the programme?

A. Certainly not, but as a member of the Institute you are encouraged to participate in continued learning and development and obtain CPDs.

Q. What information can I expect to find in the Online Academy after completing the programme?

A. Good Practice guides, e-learning, books, articles and research.

Q. How do I access the Online Academy if the 3 month period after having completed the course has passed?

A. As a member of CMI you are transitioned to using the CMI academy to use their online academy and resources.